In the gold medal contest, Alberta McCann who now stands at the head of the oratorical class of the W. C. T. U. FURNITURE VAN WRECKED.

Poplar Grove Car Plunges Into Wagon, One Horse Shot.

The collision between a street car and a Watson company moving van last evening resulted in such bad injuries to one horse that it had to be killed, gashes about the legs of the other animal, considerable damage to the van and the disappearance of the driver.

Mr. Watson says he cannot imagine where the driver has gone. He was a new man, picked up on the streets a few days ago, only. Last evening he had some work down in that portion of town near West Temple and Sixth South. He left the team standing hitched while he went inside a house in the neighborhood. The horse started out, after standing some few minutes. As they crossed the tracks on the intersection of West Temple and Sixth South streets a wheel caught on a post. The animals stopped.

A Poplar Grove line car westbound came bowling along and Motorman D. M. Sorenson did not see the horses and van until too late to prevent the car striking them. The car hit the rear of the big wagon and pushed it down the tracks for some distance. The animals fell and became mixed with harness and the running portions of the van. One horse nearly lost a leg in the mix-up. So badly was the poor beast cut and bruised that it was found most difficult to shoot it, which was done by M. J. Thompson of the second car to reach the scene. Lieut. Dick Shannon of the police force was soon on the spot and directed the clearing away of wreckage. A veterinary surgeon was called to attend to the less badly injured horse. The driver was missed and did not show up on the scene at all. Mr. Watson said he does not know the fellow's name, even.
